Logan Isaac, HoSM served in the United States Army as a forward observer in the 82nd Airborne and 25th Infantry (Light) divisions. For his service in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom in 2004, he received an Army Commendation Medal, a Valorous Unit Award, and a Meritorious Unit Award while attached to 1-14th Infantry Regiment. After six years he was honorably discharged and began using his GI Bill to earn degrees from Hawaii Pacific University (BA, 2010), Duke University (MTS, 2013), and the University of St Andrews (M.Litt, 2015).

As an author and editor Logan has over 20 publications to his name, including "Reborn on the Fourth of July," awarded a Publishers Weekly Starred Review, and "Ponder Christian Soldiers," named the Best Article Series of 2016 by the Evangelical Press Association. Following several years as a professor at Methodist and Duke Universities in North Carolina, he moved to DC metropolitan area to form the #GIJustice civil rights campaign for soldiers and veterans. His work has been featured in the London Sunday Times, Publishers Weekly, The Hill, Christianity Today Magazine, Religion News Service, America Magazine, Armed Forces Radio Network, and more. He has presented academic research at conferences in the United States, Greece, Italy, Denmark, and Great Britain.

Logan is a professed member of the Hospitallers of St Martin (HoSM), an ecumenical monastic community in the Episcopal tradition that focuses on Prayer, Hospitality, and Reconciliation for veterans and all those who have been affected by war, poverty, and violence. He lives with his partner and two children in Walkersville, MD where he operates The Chapter House, a micro-bookshop.

"Thorough, complete, interesting... some excellent writing."

- Evangelical Press
"Best Article Series"

"Well crafted... compelling. Worth reading and rereading"

- Publishers Weekly
Starred Review

"Logan... has opened my eyes to populations that I often do not notice. I am grateful for the refined vision I am gaining with Logan's help."

- Rev. Molly Shivers

"Logan has the ability to help people see how personal stories connect to larger social issues. As a classmate of his in divinity school, I was drawn to the way he narrated his combat experience... I came to see how my own story was tied up in the lives of veterans." - Brandon Hudson
